

2017 Game Changer Award Rules

At IOFM, the Institute of Finance & Management, we believe that success in business relies heavily on developing efficient business processes. Successful organizations are continually seeking better automation solutions, and financial operations professionals are always striving to keep up with the latest solutions in the marketplace. To assist members of our community with finding the latest, greatest, and truly game changing apps – IOFM is pleased to announce the first annual Game Changer Awards of 2017.

This new award program recognizes the top 5 companies with solutions that provide value to our profession. The Game Changer Awards showcase companies that provide the most productive and effective technologies and meet the highest standards of design, ease-of-use and conformance with appropriate accounting standards.

Voting

- Click on each nominee's logo to view information about their solution and/or watch a demo video on how it works.
- Click the VOTE NOW button to cast your vote for the #1 favorite app of your choice.
- Votes are identified to IP addresses to avoid any mass voting.

The Rules

- Each person is allowed to cast their vote once per day. Any attempt to trick the system into providing additional votes is considered cheating and all votes will be disregarded.
- It is permissible to encourage friends and clients to vote for your solution; however, you may not buy votes or offer anything in exchange for voting.
- Awards will be given to the top 5 highest voted solutions at the end of the voting period.
- We reserve the right to disqualify votes that are machine-generated or follow an "unnatural" voting pattern.

Voting Period: January 1, 2017 – March 31, 2017. Awards will be announced and presented at IOFM's AP & P2P Conference & Expo, May 7-9th, 2017.

Nomination

Nominations are open to the public and free to apply. Nominations will be reviewed by a committee and approved based on the applicability of the solution to the financial operations community. The nomination period runs from November 1, 2016 through November 30, 2016.

NO PURCHASE NECESSARY.

Award Benefits

Award winners will be announced at the Spring IOFM conference and will include:

Disclaimers

IOFM reserves the right to extend the nomination and voting period (e.g., if the website experiences technical difficulties and people are unable to nominate or vote for any extended period; that would be one reason among other possible reasons which could warrant extending the voting period).

IOFM reserves the right to screen nominations and, in our editorial judgment, not include on the website's official nomination list, persons and organizations which have been nominated by someone in the community, if insufficient contributions appear in the submission. We apologize if this offends anyone, however we do not have an unlimited amount of space on the website which can be dedicated to the nominations.

We also reserve the right to add to, delete from and amend these rules at any time and without prior notice and to waive any and all provisions in these rules and any irregularities in the operation of this initiative.
